

Journey of a Lifetime

Istanbul, Turkey

Istanbul International MUN

The continuous growth of the world as a global village has given birth to countless platforms where one's ideas are not limited to one's confined social circle, but the world can be rattled with any individual's ideas and perceptions. Istanbul International MUN is one of such platforms that invites young blood of this generation and provides them with the opportunity to proffer solutions for numerous turmoil that have permeated this world. The world is undoubtedly more prone to calamities than it was ever before, and Istanbul International MUN can be of service for discovering the solutions for such growing irregularities.

Istanbul International MUN second edition is an upcoming event, organised by Neoterican, which serves as a platform for one's spectacular and rapid development in personality, meticulous understanding of the current affairs, and elocution. These set of skills are, indeed, greatly recommended to contribute in the making of this world a better place, for they bring forward the lurking ingenuity of each individual.

Moreover, this endeavour will provide a great opportunity for the individuals to share their unique perspectives with the people beyond their physical borders which, in itself, is a major step towards the better understanding of the world. It will serve as a subtle chance for the young generation to forge their political, diplomatic and problem-solving skills at such an extent which is necessary for them to accomplish their dream as future leaders. It is an inevitable fact that the future resides on the shoulders of this modern generation.

Objectives

The development of the participants being the core objective of Istanbul International MUN, this event aims:

To forge the skill of eloquence among the participants by imitating the United Nations' sessions.

To muster participants of different school of thought on a single platform for enhancement of knowledge, character development and finding solutions to several problems around the globe.

To bring forth the vigour among the young leaders.

To incite the basic knowledge and advantages of entrepreneurship among the participants at such an early stage.

To raise awareness about the culture and traditions of Turkey by gallivanting in certain cities during the event.

Istanbul International MUN's Driving Force

Istanbul International MUN is a marvellous experience planned meticulously by the Neoterican which is an LLC established to nurture the political, diplomatic and social skills among the young generation that aspire to be future leaders of tomorrow. The ambition of a better modern world is interwoven in every step taken by Neoterican. The organization springs from Wyoming, USA and spreads into numerous youth networks around the globe that fashions a benchmark for the young generation to hone its diplomatic, pragmatic and oratory skills that, we believe, only lurk for an opportunity. The organized conferences are not merely aimed to raise awareness about economic conflicts, international security threats and global social crises; but they also serve as platform where the participants can infer possible remedies to these instabilities. Furthermore, the experience of the conferences gives diversity to the individuals' schools of thought and makes them even more mature.

The organization aims to make learning a wonderful experience for the participants, so they may infer nothing but a positive influence of their enlightenment.
